

Businessmen To Aid B-E Days

Students To Share Panels On Vocational Subjects

Style shows, business machine displays, panel discussions, tours through the college Business Education Department, opportunities for Dons to meet and visit with successful people in business, and an evening banquet are all part of the Santa Ana College Business Education Days program next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The program opens with a college assembly and style show in the Student Union Patio next Tuesday at 10 a.m. Welcoming address will be given by Richard L. Foster, assistant superintendent of schools; and "The Purpose of BE Days" will be the subject of a short talk by J. Arthur Taylor, Executive vice president of the First Western Bank and Trust Co., and chairman of the SAC Business Advisory Committee. Assembly commissioner Jack Roper will preside.

Vanderma's store for Men and Boys, and Mattingly's Shop for Women will conduct the style show.

Latest Machines Shown

Fifteen firms have reserved space to show the latest business machinery and office equipment, giving buyers, businessmen, personnel, and retailers as well as students an opportunity to see all leading lines in one place.

There will be two panel discussions at 11 a.m. The panel in Lecture Hall A-1 will cover "Careers in Management" with Basil J. Twist, plant superintendent of Towner Manufacturing Co. as moderator. Panel members Harold C. Kornman, plant manager of the Cherry Rivet Division of the Townsend Co.; Jesse Crim, industrial relations manager of the United States Rubber Co. in the Santa Ana plant, and Walter Corbin, manager of the Title Insurance and Trust Co. will discuss with students sales management, industrial management, public relations, industrial management, public relations, and industrial relations.

The "Career Opportunities in Marketing" panel will meet in the Student Union Patio with Steve J. Royall, co-owner of the Dunton Ford Co. as moderator. Retailing, distribution, advertising, selling, sales promotion, display, marketing, and research will be discussed by panel members George Taylor, general merchandise manager of Rankins; Joseph Preininger, district manager of National Cash Register, and John Knox, of the Knox Hardware Co.

Careers For Women

At 2 p.m. the "Business Careers for Women" panel will meet in Lecture Hall A-1 to discuss all phases of business opportunities open to women. Moderator will be Mary F. Allen, placement director of the Southern Counties Gas Co. at Los Angeles. Panel members are Mrs. Bernice Shaw, personnel manager, Buffums; Mrs. Irene Daniger, businesswoman, and Ronald Anderson, Santa Ana manager of the Pacific Telephone Co.

A buffet reception is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. with the SAC Business Club as hosts for members of the Business Advisory Committee and co-sponsoring Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce. This will give students an opportunity to visit with successful business leaders in the community.

Panel 4, "Opportunities for Women in Business" meets at 8 p.m. in the Student Union. It is sponsored by the Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's Club, assisted by the Soroptimist Club.

Careers In Public Service

Moderator is Superior Judge John Shea of Orange County and panel members are Mrs. Allen of the Southern Counties Gas Co.; Col. Homer Sterling, Santa Ana City Purchasing Agent, "Careers in Public Service"; Irma Ferris, Fullerton businesswoman, "Small Business Independence" and Dr. Jessie Graham of the Los Angeles City Schools, "Opportunities for Women as Teachers". College students are invited.

High School students from 10 Orange County schools will meet in the Student Union Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Richard Foster will be introduced by Student

INMAN OPPOSES RULES CHANGES OF BASKETBALL

When asked his opinion regarding the proposed new rule changes for basketball, Mr. Stuart K. Inman, basketball coach for Santa Ana College said today that, "Our first concern toward the rule problem should be one of universal interpretation."

"Barring flagrant and intentional violations, I am in favor of over-looking back court violations, and violations away from the ball," said Inman, adding, "Fouls against players who are shooting have a definite effect on the outcome of a game and should be called closely."

No Bonus Rule

Commenting on the controversial bonus shot rule, which gives the shooter an extra throw providing he makes the first one, Inman said, "Basically, I am for going back and playing the game about the way we did about six years ago with no bonus rule." He added that, "Many times under the present rules a team will make more points from their free throws than they will from field goals."

It has been suggested that the height of the goals be raised in order to cut down the advantage of the exceptionally tall player. Regarding this Inman said, "I see no reason why we should try to handicap the tall man." "In reality, in many coaches estimation, the smaller man would be the most severely handicapped," he added.

Keep Zone Defense

Also, some basketball coaches think that zone defense should be eliminated because it slows up the game. Inman sees "no reason why zone defense should be eliminated any more than that the curved ball should be outlawed to the pitcher in baseball."

In conclusion Inman summed up his views: "Let's not tamper too much with a game that has gotten along so well for so many years. Any changes that are made should be carefully thought over before any decisions are made. If we can get a consistent interpretation of rules throughout the country I think we will tend to eliminate the major source of basketball problems."

Gopher Snake Lost For Two Weeks

Santa Ana College's gopher snake can go on hunger strikes for months, but going without water seems to be a real hardship.

The gopher snake escaped from its glass enclosed cage a few weeks ago, and Mr. Henri J. Lirette, science instructor, gave it up for lost. Last week, however, he was surprised to find it hiding behind the books in his bookcase.

When the snake was returned to its cage it immediately slithered over to the water jar and drank. Lirette said that this occurrence was witnessed by several of his students.

The snake was last fed during the Christmas vacation, and it will soon be necessary to force feed it again.

Business Men Offered Evening Course At SAC

"Counseling Business Personnel" an evening course in psychology for business men will continue for 16 consecutive Tuesdays in room A-5 on the Santa Ana College campus from 7 until 9:30 p.m.

The course, which opened February 8 is sponsored by the University of California Extension. Arnold S. Gebel is the instructor.

Clubs To Submit Carnival Booth Choices

Barbara Baggerly, head of the committee on arrangements for booths at the Carnival and Gypsy Doodle Dance to be held March 25 said each club should submit to her by March 2, three suggestions for first, second, and third choices for a booth the club would like to sponsor at the Carnival.

Miss Baggerly stressed the importance of getting these suggestions in by March 2 as the next Inter-Club Council meeting is March 7.

Bill Reed and Toni Osterkamp, are assisting Miss Baggerly on the committee.

Minutes of the Inter-Club Council meetings will be posted on the bulletin board in the Student Union for one week after each Council meeting.

Students To Share Panels

President Charles Herring and Young Careerists from Buffums will be models in the style show.

There will be three vocational panels at 3:30 Wednesday. "Careers in General Business and Public Service" will have John Lutz of the Orange County Title Co., and president of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce as moderator.

Panel 2 will cover "Opportunities for Women in the Business World", with Miss Genevieve Humiston, Santa Ana College registrar, as moderator.

Panel 3 on "Marketing and Distribution as a Career" will have Lowell Anderson, regional supervisor, State Department of Education, Los Angeles, as moderator.

Walter Prill education director of the Southern Counties Gas Co., will talk on "Don't Be One Way" at the banquet at 6 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Santa Ana College Swing Choir and students may attend for a reduced price of $1.

Student hosts during the two day program will be SAC Business Club, the Knights, and Las Doncellas and members of the college Associated Student Executive Board and Inter-Club Council.

Santa Ana College Business Department faculty are N. W. Helm, chairman, Miss Dorothy Decker, Miss Alice Smith, Harry Jackson, Sam M. Dermengian. John "Sky" Dunlap, assistant to the director, is program director.

Dons Take Cruise Aboard USN Ship

Thirty men from Santa Ana College were among a group of high school and college students who were guests of the US Navy on board the USS Wright for an orientation cruise last Tuesday.

The noon meal was served aboard the ship during the 6-hour cruise. The students observed Navy life and routine aboard ship, which included the launching of two planes.

Susan Stroud Jack Roper Are Engaged

Miss Susan Stroud and Jack Roper have revealed their engagement to their Santa Ana College friends. The wedding will be early in June soon after graduation. They will be married in the Orange-Presbyterian Church.

Miss Stroud is a member of Las Doncellas, women's service club, past president of Las Hidalgas, and a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma, an honor society. Jack Roper is Associated Students commissioner of assemblies, a member of the Veteran's Club, and last semester was a member of the Buccaneers, men's service club. He was with the U.S. Navy during the Korean conflict and took part in the evacuation of Hungnam.

The young couple are social science majors specializing in pre-teaching. They plan to enter Long Beach State College next September.

700 HS Seniors Take Entrance Exams At SAC

Nearly 700 Orange County high school seniors will have taken English entrance examinations and general aptitude tests by May 3, through the facilities of SAC.

The complete program is being administered by the colleges of Orange County and the Orange County schools.

Tustin High School seniors were tested February 14, and on the 15, SAC was host to the 175 seniors of Orange High School. The tests were supervised by Royal C. Marten, head counselor of SAC, and Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of the Orange School office. Mr. Marten,

Gym Roof Timbers Now Being Placed

Allison Honer Co. officials said that work is now proceeding on the placing of the roof framing timbers, and the placing of the reinforcing steel and riser forms for the concrete bleacher seats for the college gymnasium.

Forms for two of the four main entrances into the bleacher section are now being erected.

Construction Superintendent Carl Moore said that each bleacher section has 21½ tons of reinforcing steel, 104 cubic yards of extra strength concrete, and 3,980 linear feet of seat boards.

Colored TV In Homes By 1957

Colored television in the average home by 1957 is the expectation of CBS-TV officials according to the young college drama major who guided members of the SAC Press Club through Television City in Hollywood last Saturday.

The completely self-contained building has about ten million dollars in electronics equipment, which is rapidly being increased as the plant is converted to colored TV. Television City was designed so that it can expand outward and upward. It now has four studios and 20 more can be added as needed.

Ordinary TV cameras cost $16,000, cameras for colored TV cost $67,000. The building is air conditioned to take care of the heat produced by spotlights during a color telecast, which produces three times the 114 degree heat of an ordinary telecast. The refrigeration system in the building can produce up to 770 tons of ice per hour.

Press Club students who visited the plant were President Jim Hunkins, Vice President, Walt Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer, Gary Butler; and club members Lorraine Elam, Ronald Herron and George Sawyer. Club advisers and guests Carol Longenecker, adviser, Dick Ruiz of the Orange County Land Use Department, John "Sky" Dunlap, adviser and Mrs. John W. Dunlap, of the Los Angeles Times News Bureau.

BUCCANEERS DISBAND

By Tom Shippe

The Buccaneers have disbanded! According to Charles Lyons, president, and Darrell Cooney, vice president, the lack of cooperation and enthusiasm was the factor causing the club to disband.

In a letter to the executive board, President Lyons and the Buccaneers' adviser Walter C. Warden had requested that the charter of the 24 year old men's service club be revoked. The board revoked the charter at their February 15 meeting.

The Buccaneers club was organized in 1931, and had twelve charter members. The purpose of the club, when first organized, was to be of service to the college, and aid in the promotion of social activities.

When the club was organized, the officers were called Skipper, First Mate, Keeper of the Log, Keeper of the Booty, Boatswain, and Captain (adviser). A yachting party to Catalina was a traditional event with the club each spring.

Business Club Joins National Organization

SAC's Business Club has joined the Future Business Leaders of America, a national organization with 1100 chapters throughout the United States, it was announced today by Russ Bonney, president. The organization has over 28,000 members, and is sponsored by the National Education Association in Washington, D.C.

Bonney said the Club will receive the monthly magazine of the FBLA. The California State Chapter gives awards and honors to outstanding clubs and individuals in the field of business and administration.

Purposes of the national organization are to develop competent, enterprising business leadership; to create more understanding and interest in the intelligent choice of business occupations; to train youths for citizenship, and participation in adult organizations.

Highly Touted Don Cindermen Meet Harbor JC This Afternoon

SAC Cagers Tripped 64-60 By Last Place Riverside Team; Come Back With 62-57 Upset Over First Place Fullerton Five

Hornets Dunked By Dons For First Time In Nearly A Decade

Well, it happened. Riverside won a basketball game.

Santa Ana was the victim in the 64-60 upset which cracked a 24 game losing string for the Bengal hoopmen, and gave them their first conference win in two years.

This game marked the first time this season that neither of the Don scoring aces, Jim Stanley, or Chuck Lewis, could tally a double-figured total, with the exception of a Chaffey Tournament game in which Stanley did not play. Lewis registered only 9 and Stanley 7 on the Riverside court.

Lee Mathews, who started the season as Inman's number one sub, took scoring laurels for the Don cagers with 13. Erroll Petersen and Jim Steffen registered 12 apiece.

Fullerton Jinx Broken

A seven year jinx was finally cracked by the Dons hoopsters on the Andrews' Gym hardwood last Thursday.

For the first time since 1947 SAC conquered a Fullerton basketball power. The 62-57 win was accomplished in high style by Stu Inman's cagers.

Midway in the first half they stole the lead from the Hornets and never gave it back. After a nervous first few minutes Del Garrett, Chuck Lewis, and Jim Stanley finally found the range, and by half-time had built a 35-30 margin for the Dons.

In the second half Lee Mathews and Erroll Petersen added their scoring talents. While the Hornets were busy worrying about the seams of their striped stockings the SAC quintet busied themselves with spreading the score. With less than half the final period remaining, the Dons had secured a 15 point edge.

Two damaging blows, the removal of Lewis and Petersen one right after the other, hampered the smooth functioning of Inman's crew in the final five minutes. Lewis had been the chief spark plug and Petersen the main ball-recoverer until they were sent out on fouls.

Fullerton went right to work on the Dons' weakened club and came within 3 points of closing the gap. But three consecutive free throws, two on a personal foul and one on a technical, dropped through by Stanley for the SAC cagers threw sand in front of the Hornets' speedy comeback and stopped their rally short.

Stanley topped the Don scoring with a lofty 17. Mathews followed with 13. Lewis rang up 12, Petersen and Garrett 9 each and Mike O'Brien 2.

FINAL CAGE GAME

Tonight the Don cagers write the final chapter of the 1954-55 hoop season. Inman's five will zip down to Costa Mesa for the final game with Orange Coast's revenge seeking Pirates in the Newport high gym. Earlier this season the Dons blasted the Bucs 72-59. Game time is 8:00 p.m.

MT. SAC SPOILS DONS' PERFECT HOME RECORD

Don basketball fans who had never seen the SAC quintet play on a foreign court saw them lose for the first time Tuesday night. Second place Mt. San Antonio halted the Dons' home winning streak at eleven games with a 66-60 triumph.

At the halfway mark Stu Inman's lads held a 35-34 lead. They maintained a 3 to 6 point edge until midway in the final half, then succumbed to the Mounties' height advantage and deft hook shots. Once the men from the hills had gained the lead the SAC five was never able to recapture it.

Mt. S.A.C. took, by far, the greatest percentage of shots in the contest, controlling both backboards without too much trouble.

Chuck Lewis managed to smuggle through 19 markers, however, and Lee Mathews 16. But the 9 scored by Jim Stanley, the 6 apiece by Del Garrett and Erroll Petersen, and the 2 by Jim Steffen were not enough to make up the required balance. The loss was their sixth in league play, eleventh for the entire season. They have won five loop games and thirteen during the entire season.

S. M. NETTERS FALL TO SAC

By Gary Butler

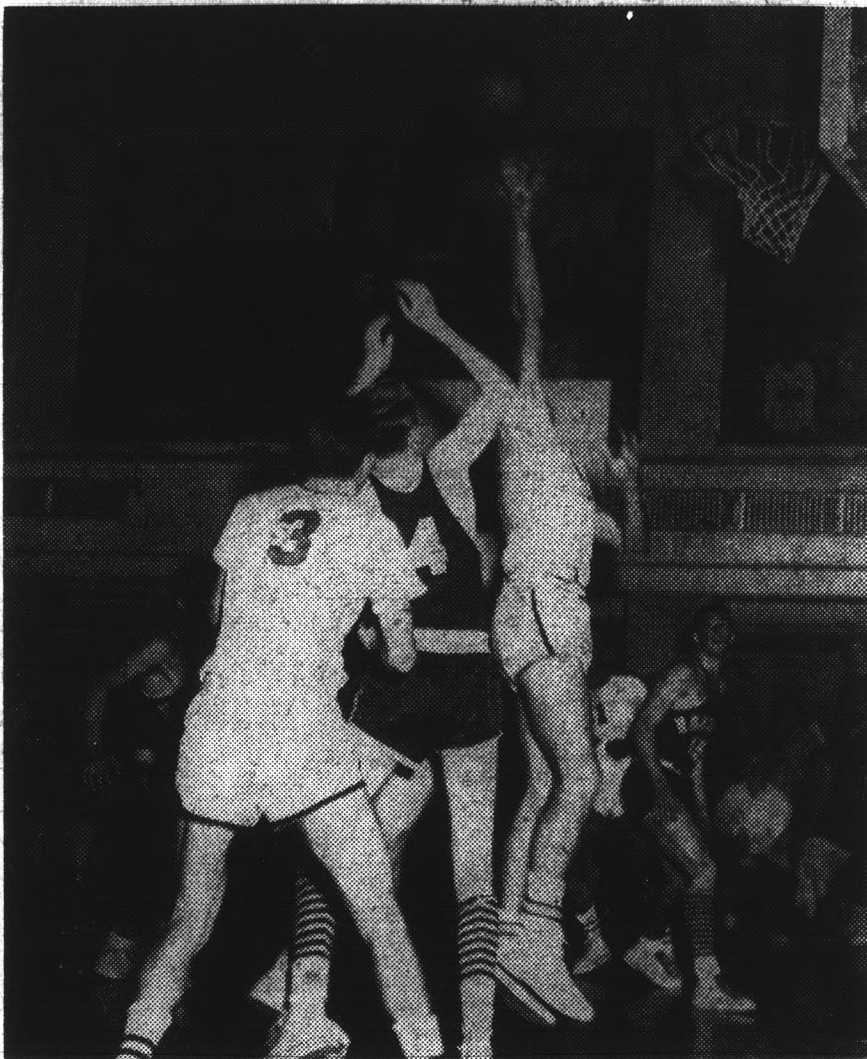

Coach Maury Gerard's tennis men nipped Santa Monica JC 6-3 in the Don's first match of the season last Monday at Santa Monica.

Bill Reed, Don ranked 14th in Southern California junior competition, lost to last year's Southern California JC singles champion Gordon Davis 6-1, 7-5 in the afternoon's most heavily watched match.

College tennis matches are scored on the basis of 9 total points, 6 in singles and 3 in doubles, and Santa Monica is hoping for a better split March 7 when they play a return match here.

Scores were as follows, with Santa Ana's men given first, and in order of their ranking: Reed lost to Davis 6-1, 7-5; Paul Bader defeated S. Bernhardt 6-3, 7-5, 6-3; Richard Lamb defeated H. Otis 6-2, 5-7, 6-4; Bill Mounce defeated D. Calhoun 6-2, 4-6, 6-2; Gene Finster defeated O. Ouiliza 6-2, 6-3; Gary Butler lost to F. Nuesca 6-2, 6-0.

Doubles were limited to one set because of darkness, Reed-Mounce defeated Davis-Ouiliza 6-3; Bader-Lamb defeated Bernhardt-Otis 7-5; Finster-Butler lost to Calhoun-Nuesca 6-0.

A SHOT GONE ASTRAY, Erroll Petersen leaps for tip-in attempt. Dons grabbed the lead from the Hornets in the first half of last Thursday's Andrews' Gym battle, then never relinquished it. Petersen's rebounding was a big factor in the Dons' 62-57 victory.

Coeds Drop 3 of 4 DON NINE DROP Contests To LAJC; CLASH TO LBCC Meet Mt. SAC Mar. 9

In competition against LAJC Business School the Dona volleyball team captured one of four battles last week. In the first round the SAC club split with LAJC, winning 23-22 and losing 16-33. They dropped both contests in the second round, the first 4-46 and the second 16-29.

Captaining the two SAC teams were Martie Musick and Jane Markham.

On March 9 the coed volleyballers will host the Mt. San Antonio net-gals on the SAC asphalt courts.

By Louis Barreto

The Don baseball club was defeated in an exhibition game by Long Beach City College, 1954 State Champs, on the SAHS diamond in their first competition of the season.

Home runs by DeMars, Balcom, and Swanner, plus the fine pitching staff of the Vikings were the weapons used to whip the Dons. DeMars belted a homer off R. Rodriguez' hurling with two men aboard in the opening inning.

A combination of errors by Birch and Gibas of LBCC gave the Dons their first run, Bob Lacy crossing the plate for Cook's team.

Viking hurler Balcom rapped a home run into right-center to score the fourth LBCC run. Two more runs were scored when Hull's two-bagger scored Schuler from second, and Hull tallied another on a passed ball by catcher Wade Davis.

The hard hitting Long Beachers pushed themselves further ahead in the third inning by tallying five runs. Birch, Swanners, Gibbs, Balcom, and Hull were the Viking scorers.

Swanner's home run in the fourth—off reliever Al Banks—was the 12th run for the Vikings. Banks then settled down and blanked the Long Beachers during the last three innings.

Santa Ana scored their last run

Ward's Whiz Kids To Unveil Talent On Hawk's Track

The curtain goes up on the 1955 track season when the Dons clash with the Hawks in a practice meet on the Harbor JC track today.

Touted as even stronger than last season's Eastern Conference Championship club, today's battle will give a good indication of what to really expect from Coach John Ward's tracksters this spring.

In the sprints and sprint relays Ward has named Gene Radtke, Roy Stephen, George Gumbrecht, Ron Contreras, Pierson Conradt, Bert Kohnhorst, Charlie Neal, and Bill Swishhelm. Conradt, Kohnhorst, and Neal are lettermen.

Running the 440 will be Abraham Peralta and Larry Dunnivant, and in the half mile event Bruce Bowman, Burritt Galloway, Tom Noll, and Harold Motley. Galloway and Noll are lettermen.

Distance Harriers

Distance men include Jim Geyer, Tom Frazier, Orlan Grunklee, Jim Suverkrubbe, Raymond Villalobos, and Bob Williams. Of these, Frazier, Grunklee, and Suverkrubbe are returners from last year's team.

Ward's hurdlers are Mike Trainor, Neal, and Jon Winter, all three considerably better than average.

Broad jumping will be Ker Lundell, Bloy Steiner, and Neal Steiner is another Don track letterman. And in the high jump department is Roy Gray and Bob Nugent. Gray is also a vet.

To toss the shot and discus Ward, has Ron Adel, Larry Holcombe, Darrell Cooney, Gene Marvol, Gene York, Walter Cole, and Lewis Jones to choose from. Adel, Cooney, Holcombe, and York are the returners in this group.

Rounding out the current roster are pole vaulters and javelin tossers Parker Damon and John Schick.

Impressive Records

Impressive high school records follow a host of the newcomers to the 1955 team. Records of lettermen from last season's championship squad speak for themselves.

To mention a few of the most outstanding feats performed by some of the freshmen contingent: Mike Trainor of Laguna Beach captured the CIF 180 low hurdle crown; Bill Swishhelm holds among other records, a 220 dash time of 20.8 which is just a tenth of a second shy of the world's record set by Jesse Owens, and the third best 100 dash time in the U.S.; Jim Geyer was the CIF half mile champ while running for Grossmont High; Larry Dunnivant ran the 440 in the low 50's for SAHS' Sunset League Champions Ron Contreras from Anaheim High was second to Swishhelm in the Sunset League sprints; and Parker Damon pole-vaulted 12' 6" and hurled the javelin in the 180' for Grossmont.
